My duties and obligations

Under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 I have duties and obligations relating to how I give advice. I am required to:

- Ensure you understand the nature and scope of service you ask me to provide.
- Provide an advice service that is relevant to this scope of service and suitable to your individual circumstances and needs.
- Listen to your needs, concerns and preferences and treat you fairly and with respect.
- Act with integrity, giving priority to your interests, and give advice that is not influenced by my own interests.
- Exercise care, diligence, and skill in providing you with advice.
- Meet the necessary standards of competence, knowledge, and skill to provide you with the advice you requested.
- Ensure you understand my advice and recommendations and any associated risks.
- Keep you informed throughout the process, communicating in a timely, clear and effective manner.

Nature and Scope of the Advice

I will provide you with financial advice in relation to your Personal Insurances/ Business Insurances.

I can give financial advice about Personal and Business Insurance products provided by AIA, Asteron, Chubb, Fidelity, and Partners Life

I can give financial advice about Health Insurance products provided by AIA, Accuro, Nib, and Partners Life.

Limitations to the advice I will provide:

Reliability History

A reliability event is something that might materially influence you in deciding whether to seek advice from me or SHARE. As an example, it would include legal proceedings against me, or if I had been discharged from bankruptcy in the last four years.

There have been no reliability events for SHARE NZ Services Ltd, La Jolla Enterprises Ltd or me.

How we are paid

Fees and Expenses: I do not charge a fee for the financial advice I provide to you

Remuneration: I am remunerated as shareholder and director of La Jolla Enterprises Ltd primarily by drawings and shareholder salary. SHARE and my company receive all commissions and client fees that are generated by me. Depending on the Company/ies and product/s you choose, SHARE and La Jolla Enterprises Ltd will be paid a commission.

From time-to-time product providers may also reward me for the overall business I provide to them. They may give me tickets to sports events, hampers or other incentives.

Most of SHARE's advisers have a financial interest in the business of SHARE as a shareholder of SHARE NZ Services Limited. Any issue of shares, payments of dividends or other distributions to shareholders by SHARE NZ Services Limited has no effect on the service provided.

Insurance remuneration: Insurance commission may be between 150% and 230% of the first year's premium of your policy.

SHARE and La Jolla Enterprises Ltd also receive a commission of between 5% and 25% of the premium for each year the policy remains in place.

In addition, SHARE and La Jolla Enterprises Ltd receive commission of between 15% and 30% of the first year's premium of your policy, depending on which Insurance company and which policy you choose.

Conflicts of Interest and Incentives

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above my own, SHARE operates a comprehensive and robust framework of policies and procedures, and I follow an advice process that ensures my recommendations are made on the basis of your goals and circumstances.

SHARE's financial advisers undergo an annual compliance review and receive training about SHARE's policies and procedures including managing conflicts of interest. SHARE maintains and monitors registers of conflicts of interests, and the gifts and incentives I receive.
